

Melanoma Summit

New Zealand 2018

2 – 3 November 2018

Cordis Hotel, Auckland

DRAFT programme

As at 27 June 2018

Subject to change.

Friday 2 November 2018

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
0830	Mihi whakatau
0845	Formal opening	Guest speaker
0855	Welcome
0905	A challenge to participants from a patient perspective
Session 1: Epidemiology and primary prevention
0910	Global trends in melanoma incidence and mortality and emerging issues in primary prevention and risk assessment	Professor David Whiteman Senior Scientist and Deputy Director, QIMR Berghofer Medical Research Institute
0940	Trends in melanoma incidence and mortality in New Zealand and risk assessment in New Zealand	Dr Mary Jane Sneyd Senior Research Fellow, Hugh Adam Cancer Epidemiology Unit University of Otago HPA sponsored speaker
0955	Questions and discussion
1015	Morning tea
Session 2: Clinical diagnosis
1045	Artificial intelligence and advances in dermatoscopy and teledermatoscopy	Associate Professor Cliff Rosendahl Director Master of Medicine (Skin Cancer) Programme, University of Queensland
1115	Nodular melanoma (an important issue for NZ)	Professor John Kelly Director, Victorian Melanoma Service, The Alfred Hospital, Melbourne
1145	Diagnosis and changes in histological classification: 8 th edition American Joint Committee on Cancer	Dr Michael Hitchcock Dermatopathologist, Auckland Anatomic Pathology Services
1230	Lunch
Session 3: Melanoma management
1315	The critical role of sentinel node biopsy in the management of melanoma	Professor John Thompson Professor of Melanoma and Surgical Oncology, The University of Sydney
1345	Melanoma Standards update	Dr Richard Martin Surgical Oncologist, New Zealand Melanoma Unit
1400	Questions and discussions

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
Breakout session 1
1415	[1A] MelNet melanoma multi-disciplinary meeting: challenging cases This session will focus on clinical management of challenging or unusual cases of melanoma. A multidisciplinary panel will discuss a range of cases. A similar session will be repeated in Breakout Session 2A but will have a different panel and look at different cases. Delegates are encouraged to attend only one of these sessions. [1B] Dermatoscopy in Action This session presented by Associate Professor Cliff Rosendahl will teach the basics of the 'chaos and clues' approach to dermatoscopy in diagnosing melanoma and will demonstrate its practical application to specific cases. [1C] Sunscreens: Current Issues and Controversies This interactive session featuring Professor David Whiteman and several sunscreen manufacturers will explore issues and controversies around sunscreen provision, regulations, effectiveness and use in New Zealand. Participants will work to identify opportunities to reduce the incidence of melanoma and non-melanoma skin cancers in New Zealand through the use of sunscreen. [1D] TBC
1515	Afternoon tea
Breakout session 2
1545	[2A] MelNet melanoma multi-disciplinary meeting: challenging cases 2 This session will focus on clinical management of challenging or unusual cases of melanoma. A multidisciplinary panel will discuss a range of cases. This will be a repeat of Breakout Session 1A but will have a different panel and look at different cases. Delegates are encouraged to attend only one of these sessions. [2B] Dysplastic nevus vs melanoma in situ This workshop will feature a panel, including Professor John Kelly, who will explore the interface between histological and clinical diagnosis using a range of difficult cases as examples.

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
	[2C] Use of technologies and their potential role in prevention and diagnosis This session will feature a series of quick-fire presentations from manufacturers of melanoma prevention and detection technologies followed by a discussion on the current impact of technology and its role in the future of in prevention and diagnosis of melanoma. Speakers will stay after the session to answer any questions.
	[2D] Snapshots of Innovative Initiatives in Primary Prevention Presenters whose submitted abstracts have been selected will provide snapshots of an innovative initiative for primary prevention.
1645	Day one breakout sessions: highlights and recommendations
1700	MeINet AGM
1730	Poster presentation session and cash bar
1845	Conference dinner

Saturday 3 November 2018

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
0715	Breakfast session: Immunotherapy - the New Zealand story: a breakfast panel discussion To commence with a buffet breakfast, this session will analyse the impact of immunotherapies on melanoma treatment in New Zealand over the past two years. This will be supported by case studies and stories told by survivors of their experiences.
Session 4: Advances in therapy and care
0830	Title TBC	Dr Donna Milne Advanced Practice Nurse in the Skin and Melanoma Service and a clinical nurse researcher in the Department of Cancer Experiences Research, Peter MacCallum Cancer Centre Victoria
0900	Standard of care for Stage IV metastatic melanoma and future prospects	Associate Professor Victoria Atkinson Senior Staff Specialist, Princess Alexandra Hospital Brisbane

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
0930	Panel discussion
Session 5: Advances in melanoma research in New Zealand
0945	Title TBC	Professor Rod Dunbar Director, Maurice Wilkins Centre Professor Peter Shepherd Deputy Director, Maurice Wilkins Centre Professor Mike Eccles New Zealand Institute for Cancer Research Trust Chair in Cancer Pathology, University of Otago
1030	Morning tea
Breakout session 3
1100	[3A] GPs with a special interest in skin cancer Intended for those who are part of or interested in joining New Zealand Skin Cancer Doctors. The session will provide an overview of NZ Skin Cancer Doctors and the work they do. It will also include a discussion of interesting cases where attendees are encouraged to bring along interesting or complex dermatoscopic and surgical cases. The session will conclude with an AGM for New Zealand Skin Cancer Doctors.
	[3B] NZ Skin Cancer Primary Prevention and Early Detection Strategy 2017 to 2022 : health check on progress Intended for those working in primary prevention, this session will review primary prevention and early detection long term outcomes identified in the New Zealand Skin Cancer Primary Prevention and Early Detection Strategy 2017 to 2022. The session will conclude with a discussion on the 'When to apply sunscreen' – draft Position Statement resulting from 2018 Brisbane Sunscreen Summit (as discussed in breakout 1C) and its potential incorporation the Strategy.
	[3C] TBC
	[3D] TBC
Breakout session 3
1145	[4A] TBC following abstract submission MelNet members whose abstracts have been selected will provide a snapshot of an innovative initiative, research project or model of best practice for melanoma diagnosis, treatment or care in New Zealand. The presentation length will depend upon

TIME	TOPIC	PRESENTER
	the number and quality of abstracts. Abstracts will be streamed according to topic.
	[4B] TBC following abstract submission MelNet members whose abstracts have been selected will provide a snapshot of an innovative initiative, research project or model of best practice for melanoma diagnosis, treatment or care in New Zealand. The presentation length will depend upon the number and quality of abstracts. Abstracts will be streamed according to topic.
1245	Lunch
1315	Day two breakout sessions: highlights and recommendations
1330	Adjuvant therapy: current controversies in the surgical management of melanoma
1415	Panel: The Future of Melanoma Prevention, Diagnosis, Treatment, Care and Research
1445	Wrap up and recommendations
1515	Closing remarks
1530	Close	