

Skin Cancer in the Elderly – Online Course

Programme (v1.2)

8.30 am – 12.30 pm, Saturday 19 August 2023

8.30 am	Welcome and housekeeping
8.35 am	A brief overview of New Zealand's skin cancer epidemic Dr. Chris Boberg, Co-Chair MelNet and Chair NZ Skin Cancer Doctors Society
8.45 am	Clinical red flags and early detection: how skin cancers get missed Adjunct Associate Professor Amanda Oakley, Dermatologist, Te Whatu Ora Waikato
9.30 am	The importance of dermoscopy in the early detection of skin cancer Adjunct Associate Professor Amanda Oakley, Dermatologist, Te Whatu Ora Waikato
9.50 am	Break
10.05 am	Management options for early-stage and advanced disease Dr Michael Zheng, GP with special interest in skin cancer, Skin Check Auckland Dr Jody Jordan, Medical Oncologist, Te Whatu Ora Hawke's Bay
10.45 am	Considerations when managing an older person with skin cancer Dr John Geddes, Geriatrician, Te Whatu Ora Canterbury
11.05 am	Break
11.20 am	Wound care for elderly skin cancer patients Wendy Dragt, Clinical Nurse Specialist, Nurse Maude Wound Clinic
11.50 am	Case study
12.05 pm	Panel: Questions and discussion
12.20 pm	Summary of key takeaway messages and closing remarks Dr. Chris Boberg, Co-Chair MelNet and Chair NZ Skin Cancer Doctors Society
12.30 pm	Close