

Programme

Auckland Skin Cancer Study Day for Nurses

1 November 2024

Whenua Pupuke, Waitemata Clinical Skills Centre, North Shore Hospital

Session 1: Welcome, primary prevention and early detection
0900	Registration opens Tea, coffee and light refreshments available
0930	Welcome and course overview Helen Kinchley, Melanoma Clinical Nurse Specialist/Cancer Nurse Coordinator, North Shore Hospital
0945	Skin cancer prevention and early detection in New Zealand: what you need to know
	An overview of New Zealand's skin cancer epidemic Chelsea Langman, Director SkinAware
	The New Zealand Skin Cancer Primary Prevention and Early Detection Strategy Katrina Patterson, CEO MelNet
	Your role as a nurse Chelsea Langman, Director SkinAware
1045	Morning tea
Session 2: Care
1115	My journey: a patient perspective Jarrod Lill, Patient advocate
1130	How nurses can support the mental health of skin cancer patients Shireen Garrett, Counsellor, Melanoma New Zealand
1150	Skin grafts and wound care Helen Kinchley, Melanoma Clinical Nurse Specialist/Cancer Nurse Coordinator, North Shore Hospital
1235	Lunch
Session 3: Care cont., treatment and wrap up
1320	Innovations in sun protection Michael Lewis and Prachi Hendricksen, L'Oréal Australia & New Zealand

1330	Q & A Session
1350	Update from ESMO Rosalie Stephens, Medical Oncologist, Health NZ Te Whatu Ora Auckland
1420	Update on melanoma clinical trials Amy Swaffield, Nurse, Harbour Cancer & Wellness
1450	Resilience and self-care for nurses Amrita D'Souza, Health Psychologist, Middlemore Hospital
1520	Wrap up Helen Kinchley, Melanoma Clinical Nurse Specialist/Cancer Nurse Coordinator, North Shore Hospital
1530	Close