

Non-Melanoma Skin Cancer Seminar

Programme

Saturday 17 June 2023

The Spencer Hotel, Auckland

Proudly sponsored by

0830	Welcome and housekeeping Dr Chris Boberg, Co-Chair MelNet and Chair NZ Skin Cancer Doctors Society
0845	Overview of New Zealand's non-melanoma skin cancer situation Dr Bronwen McNoe, Senior Research Fellow and Co-Director Social and Behavioural Research Unit, University of Otago
0905	The importance of UV prevention Dr Vania Sinovich, Dermatologist, Skin Institute Remuera and The Skin Company
0935	Solar damaged skin – actinic keratosis: Clinical and dermatoscopic diagnosis and management Dr Megan Reilly, Skin Cancer Doctor, Skin Institute Queenstown
1000	Morning tea
1030	My story: a patient perspective Marty Perkinson
1045	Basal cell carcinoma and squamous cell carcinoma: Clinical and dermatoscopic diagnosis and management Dr Andrew MacGill, Director, SkinCheck Northcote
1145	My story: a patient perspective A reading - written by Jacqui Sinclair
1200	Staging and treatment of non-melanoma skin cancer: a Surgical Oncologists perspective Mr Richard Martin, Surgical Oncologist, Te Whatu Ora Waitemata
1230	Lunch
1330	Rare non-melanoma skin cancers: Clinical and dermatoscopic diagnosis and management Adjunct Associate Professor Amanda Oakley, Dermatologist, Te Whatu Ora Waikato
1400	Oncological management of non-melanoma skin cancers Dr Rosalie Stephens, Medical Oncologist, Te Whatu Ora Auckland
1430	Non-Melanoma Skin Cancer Best Practice Guidelines Dr Marcus Platts Mills, Dermatology Associate, Skin Institute and General Practitioner, Silverdale Medical
1500	Afternoon tea
1530	A gap in systematic photoprotection education may underpin the widespread prevalence of skin cancer in Australia Dr Saba Rezaei-Lotfi, Health Information Specialist, L'Oreal
1600	Panel discussion Dr Megan Reilly (Chair), Dr Andrew MacGill, Dr Richard Martin, Dr Rosalie Stephens
1645	Closing remarks Dr Chris Boberg, Co-Chair MelNet and Chair NZ Skin Cancer Doctors Society
1700	Close